Mountain West Financial Improves Exclusive Broker Portal System - BOLT Making Homeownership A Reality Since 1990

Mountain West Financial is proud to announce the newly improved and re-designed Broker Portal – BOLT. BOLT has been re-designed to be loan level focused and the Workflow process has been re-designed to be more user friendly. “Our exclusive BOLT system is a game changer for Mountain West. We have always been committed to giving brokers industry leading customer service, but now we are adding industry leading technology and a quicker, easier process of making homeownership a reality for their clients” said John F. Cady, Senior VP of Production at Mountain West Financial, Inc.

Some of the BOLT enhancements include:

- Enhanced BOLT Dashboard: The new dashboard will contain links to several useful documents, including: How To's, Product Guidelines and other reference materials.
- New Look: The loan interface has been re-designed to provide ease of navigation including a status bar timeline showing where the loan is and what the next steps will be.
- Broker Generated Disclosures: Brokers can now seamlessly generate disclosures directly from within BOLT.

- Document Management: BOLT has been improved to offer an easy process to upload and view documents directly within the loan file.
- Uploading Documents: The process for uploading documents to the loan file has been streamlined. Many non-useful options have been removed, such as: Fax, barcodes and the cumbersome process of selecting a Doc Type for each uploaded document. Users now simply select the Document Upload button.

If you have any questions regarding the newly re-designed BOLT system, please contact your Business Development Manager or email us at info@mwfinc.com.
